SPOTLIGHT ON EAST ASHEVILLE - By Linda Stanton

East Asheville Academy

East Asheville Academy is a private child care and day care center right here in our neighborhood. Located in the heart of "downtown" Haw Creek, the center shares a building with Penny Cup Coffee and Creekside Tap House. The closing of Nurseryland Day Care (previously featured in this column), leaves EAA as only one of two community child care centers in Haw Creek, the other being the Haw Creek Elementary Head Start program.

The space had previously housed another day care center which came up for sale in 2007. This interested current owner Teresa Webb, who at the time had a small home-based day care center. She saw this opportunity to branch out and expand, knowing how much quality child care services are needed in the area. She had spent time as a child in the east Asheville

Oakley neighborhood and was familiar with the area. On January 1, 2008, Teresa opened East Asheville Academy and the business is still going strong and growing. Read more...

BOARD MEMBERS NEEDED!!!

The Haw Creek Community Association is vital to our neighborhood; not only for our social events and newsletter, but letting the city know the feelings of our community regarding issues that affect Haw Creek. At our Annual Meeting on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 we will be voting for six new board members. READ ON...

IT TIME TO RENEW YOUR ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP

This note is a friendly reminder that 2018 membership dues for the Haw Creek Community Association are due in January.

These dues cover the calendar year and are only $12 per household. Membership dues account for almost all of our income and if we are to continue to manage a website, send our electronic newsletter and hold events we need your continued support. If you can give more than $12, your tax-deductible donation will be greatly appreciated.

You may pay by check or pay online at our WEBSITE through PayPal (no PayPal account necessary - credit cards accepted).
